CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SAN BERNARDINO Department of English

M.A. in English & Writing Studies: Alternative Thesis Application

Name:	Address:
Telephone:
E-mail:
Concentration(s)
websites and are responsible for conform	fecting the thesis process on the M.A. and Graduate Studies ning to these deadlines.
2. Your Thesis Committee: Serving on th	nis committee should be two full-time faculty members of using wish to include a reader from outside the English Department, cluded in the proposal packet.
(Chair) Print name	Signature
(Reader 2) Print Name	Signature
Concentration Coordinator: Print Name	Cignoturo

- 3. Assemble the following documents and attach them to an email:
 - a. Signed form above
 - b. Justification for having a member of the committee from outside the English Department (if needed)
 - c. The thesis proposal (maximum 1000 words) in which you discuss the scholarly/pedagogical context of the thesis, the purpose of the thesis, the method by which the topic will be explored, and possible conclusions to be drawn from the undertaking.
- 4. Email this proposal packet to your concentration coordinator and to Dottie Cartwright (dcartwri@csusb.edu). You will then be issued a permit to take English 6973, the thesis writing workshop.